

A HANDFUL OF WIND

music & lyrics REN PAUL *only the wind remains to us forever

only the sun will play with your red hair
only the time of sand will follow your footprints
so who wins
no one wins
forever & never & ever & ever*

*there's no regret of what we'll do tomorrow
n'what have we done - there won't be no sorrow
there is no chance
to break this wall of glass
only a handful of wind
remains to us*

*you can be seen,
you can be heard
but no one can ever understand a word of what you say
and what you think, mm-m n' why you're tryin' to forget ev'rything*

*never again, never again will you smile to me
never again, never again
will my mind be free*

*why you let me go
will I ever know
I guess, no...*
