

BIRTHDAY PARTY OF THE SON

music & lyrics REN PAUL sleeping silent in your bed your hands under your cheek you don't know nothing bad you have the birthday this week I will come to wish you well and I'll kiss your ma I will tell you a fairy tale I'll give you a toy car

*birthday party
just another day
5 candles shining
never again*

*you tell me you have a new friend but he knows bad words you still love your poor old cat but where he's gone nobody knows and when I stand up to go you ask - why don't you stay tonite ?
I feel so sad that I can't explain and the pain blows up inside*

just another day
5 candles shining
never again*

*sleep well my sonny
close your eyes, ok ?
please don't worry
I'll be back one day*

just another day
birthday party
some day again*
