

CAN'T STOP THINKING 'BOUT YOU

music & lyrics REN PAUL

you've been so kind you've been so good why did you change, I never understood you was so pretty
you was so fine
but now that's all, an' you're not mine whatever you like me to
    I would do
    for you
    can't stop thinking 'bout you
    I want you

I know the heartache I've suffered of I'm gonna kill the pain an'throw it off n'when the last time
I saw you face
I couldn't see even a trace of disgrace
    whatever you like me to
    I would do for you
    can't stop thinking 'bout you
    I want you

I hope I'll be your man again
you'll see I'll do the best I can and when I make the things go right
you'll be again my sweet dynamite
    whatever you like me to
    I would do
    for you
    can't stop thinking 'bout you
    I want you
